

SMITH|HARTVIGSEN^{PLLC}

Attorneys at Law

BRIAN F. HAHN

Paralegal

bhahn@smithlawonline.com

801.413.1600

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

Mr. Hahn joined Smith Hartvigsen in 2003 where his primary areas of focus have been redevelopment, water rights, and property issues. Prior to joining the Firm, Mr. Hahn worked as a contract historian at the Washington State University Museum of Art and the Nez Perce National Historical Park museum. He worked for two years as a patron services archivist for the Utah State Archives where he specialized in property records and research.

During his time at Washington State University, Mr. Hahn worked as a teaching assistant in the Department of History. As a result of his education in public history and Native American history, he gained extensive experience as a researcher by performing research at the National Archives in Washington, D.C. and Seattle, Washington, and several city, county, state, and university archives.

EDUCATION

Master of Arts degree in History, with an emphasis in public history and Native American history Washington State University, 1996

Bachelor of Arts in History, cum laude, Weber State University, with departmental honors and an Archaeological Technician Certificate, 1993

INTERESTS

Mr. Hahn volunteers extensively in community theater and with the Boy Scouts of America as a scoutmaster and an advisor in the Order of the Arrow.