

SMITH|HARTVIGSEN^{PLLC}

Attorneys at Law

STEVEN H. STEWART

Partner

sstewart@smithlawonline.com

801.413.1600

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

Mr. Stewart, who began practicing law in 1971, joined Smith|Hartvigsen in 2005. He represents owners, general contractors, subcontractors, and suppliers in construction disputes and has served as Chair of the Construction Law Section of the Utah State Bar. He also mediates and arbitrates disputes.

In 1993, Mr. Stewart left private practice to become the Director of the Real Estate Division in the Utah Department of Commerce, where he supervised the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers, agents, and appraisers. In 1995, he became the Executive Director of the Utah Judicial Conduct Commission, an eleven-member agency charged with investigating and resolving ethics complaints against judges.

For 20 years, Mr. Stewart served as Justice Court Judge for the Town of Alta, Utah. He has also served as a member of the Utah Citizens Advisory Council on Alcoholic Beverage Control and has been a presenter in seminars on construction law, real estate law, and judicial ethics.

PRACTICE AREAS

Alternative Dispute Resolution
Business Litigation

Construction
Real Estate

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Admitted to:

2001 United States Supreme Court
1974 Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals
1971 Utah Supreme Court
1971 United States District Court for the District of Utah

AWARDS AND DISTINCTIONS

2008 Utah Business Magazine, Utah Legal Elite, Construction
AV Rating, Martindale Hubbell

PUBLICATIONS

"What Do You Do When Site Conditions Differ from Plans and Specifications," National Business Institute Seminar, 1992.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science, University of Utah, 1969
Juris Doctorate, University of Utah College of Law, 1971